SENIOR CLASS OF
MONTPELIER HIGH SCHOOL
Montpelier, Ohio

Foreword

High school comprises several of the most influential years in a youth's life. It not only prepares those who wish for a higher education to pursue such advanced training, but also forms a firm educational foundation for those who are terminating their scholastic training at this point.

Though Montpelier High School is only an ordinary American High School to most people, it denotes much more to its students. It has been the scene of well-supervised training, undying friendships, and an ever-present spirit of activity and cooperation. These characteristics are essential to the efficient functioning of any organization. For example, a railroad could never successfully carry on its business without the continual cooperation of its personnel, from the executive body down through the section gang. To illustrate how closely the operation of a school and a railroad are related, the 1949 Mirror bases its theme upon the railroad.

The Terminal

She has stood for thirty-five years and witnessed the graduation of 1,718 students in thirty-five graduating classes.

Some of her alumni are doctors, some are attorneys, some are teachers, some are proprietors and some employees of local establishments.

Many of her children have wandered far from her doors to engage in professions outside her domain.

As these students leave her portals they join the never-ending procession threading its way from her doors to various fields of world service.

Dedication

In the past, annuals have been dedicated to ideals, to the school, even to the editors. This year we have given recognition to one person—Nick Jamra—whose name has become a synonym for school spirit. Nick's friendly personality and staunch loyalty have won him the admiration of the whole community as well as that of the students. We will not soon forget his sincere encouragement or his friendly greeting whenever we met. As a token of gratitude and appreciation, we, the Class of 1949, dedicate "The Mirror" to Nick Jamra, a true citizen, whom we consider supremely worthy of our regard.

Administration

The administrative body of the school represent the engineers, conductors, all the persons necessary for keeping our train running on schedule; they are the men and women who make our journey possible. The School Board, directors of all business activity; Superintendent Howald and Principal Karnes, on whom the duty of carrying out their plans and managing the school itself, falls; and the teachers, who do the actual work, who have perhaps the more important and delicate task of guiding us through the labyrinth of difficulties we encounter during our high-school years; all these we salute as the best of their class. We hope the classes to follow will appreciate the true value of such an administrative staff.

Cecil Prosser, John Rundell, Robert Winzeler, Harry Schwartz, Waldo Miller.

School Board

In the operation of a school such as ours, many questions arise that require the judgment of men of ability and experience.

The Montpelier Board of Education is composed of men who have been successful in their own various lines of business and who deserve recognition. They serve in the interests of the community without compensation, and sacrifice much of their time and energy that the taxpayer's dollar may buy more education for the children of their city.

Of the five members of the Board, Clerk-Treasurer Cecil Prosser has served the longest time, having spent twelve years; John Rundell comes next on the seniority list with ten years; President Waldo Miller and Vice-President Robert Winzeler each have served four years, and Harry Schwartz has served two years.

In the school buildings, evidence of the Board's activities abounds; the greater portion of last summer was spent in redecorating the schools, resulting in more pleasant surroundings for both the teachers and the pupils.

Superintendent

W. A. HOWALD, Superintendent

The high school not only has the problem of preparing young men and women for college but it also must provide types of educational experiences and kinds of activities best suited to the needs and interests of that vast majority of American youth who, upon leaving the high school, are brought directly in contact with the most complex civilization the world has ever known and with the problem of making a living. These young people, too, must share the responsibilities which every citizen has for good and effective government and for the preservation and promotion of the best traditions of American life.

Principal

H. A. KARNES, Principal

Since the time community life began, there has been the problem of how to maintain this social condition harmoniously and how to better it. The culture handed down from lands and peoples now dead represents their highest successes and advances in community living; to preserve this culture and to aid in preparing new generations to enter their stations in life well-equipped to add to it, schools were established. They have evolved from the dim beginnings, which primarily contrived to preserve ancient philosophies, to the modern school, whose distinguishing characteristic seems to be increasing practical preparation for living.

In the education of any individual, therefore, one of the fundamentals is learning how to react to the society of which he is to become a part, for there is much evidence that a member of a community cannot be considered separately from his community; each is an integral part of the other. In our school, we have attempted to put this theory into practice by trying to train our students to enter their life well-equipped.

Classes

Here we present the passengers of our train—the classes, from Kindergarten just buying their tickets, to the Seniors, ready to get off. All through grade school we find students making preparations for boarding the train. Then come the Freshmen, safely aboard, still in the daze of getting settled; the Sophomores, well-established in the routine, busily organizing their extra-curricular life; the Juniors, eagerly awaiting the end of their journey, yet absorbed in the activities of their coach; and the Seniors, in a last-minute flurry of action, leaving the train to which they have become so accustomed.

Class Officers

Every class has its officers, of course, and some of us have filled a position at the head of the class in previous years. But this year there was a special significance in being elected. Many of our class have been together for twelve years and the choosing of officers for our last year was a sort of rite for expressing respect for certain members of the class. We are proud to have been the choice of the Seniors of '49.

The "49ers"

The story of this class does not differ much with former graduating classes, as far as statistics go, but wait, if I may borrow a little of your time?

To start out right, let us turn back a page or two of our life, to about 1937. The scene would be the old grade school. As we looked around the room, we would probably have gazed upon a small group of freckle-faced runts, and examining them a bit more, you might have seen a tear or two, and, if I dare call your attention to it, the little girl the teacher is chiding; listen hard; can you hear her softly sobbing? And then there was Mama looking proudly as her own little boy or girl, and maybe thinking, oh, so secretly, "There's something special about that child!"

The second grade (1938) found most of us in an old house, located approximately in the front yard of the high school gym. Because music students were something very special, they held classes upstairs. If you became thirsty during school hours you would go to the kitchen (incidentally there were pupils in there, too), and unfold your little collapsible tin drinking cup.

When we reached the third grade, our new grade school was built and ready for use! and my! what a bug-eyed bunch we were, those first few days: we were so overwhelmed! This year was a great year, with the grocery stores, post-offices, and Indian projects. We were open for business, but we were forced to patronize ourselves, for strangely enough, everyone else was going into business too, so profits were none too good. 1939 was the year the safety commission filmed an optical illusion of Mrs. Burcham as she ran over her daughter and our fellow student, Eloise, and we mailed a letter to Mayor Harvey.

The fifth grade was really the next heave-ho, for this year we changed classes. So many classes and so many teachers, if you caught one of us off guard you might have seen him shaking his head, to make sure he was not merely dreaming.

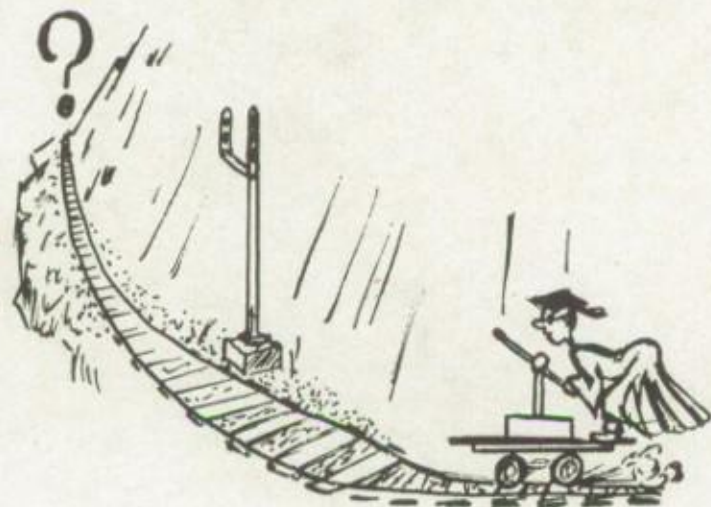

By the time we reached the seventh grade we were crashing grade school society with our most charming two-step, which only the more talented could master. Also this was the year we made a name for ourselves in athletics, "Nick's", and the hairbows. Remember?

The eighth grade should be devoted to the socially minded entirely, with all its junior band concerts, basketball games, and let us not forget the dances and the "grand march." After this round of entertainment, it was time for graduation, which meant leaving Mrs. Shatzer, Miss Hoskinson, Mrs. Borton, Mr. Altaffer and the others, but with graduation would come new teachers and new activities. There was Mama again, maybe sitting in the front row, or even the last, looking intently at that overgrown bundle of bones stumbling across the stage with a paper that meant so much, and she's still secretly thinking, and still very proud.

Our freshman year was fascination at its highest, and strange faces and newly acquired friends were popping out all over. There were hayrides in the country, on moonlit nights, hot dogs roasted out in the open fire, smeared generously with mustard, and as you prepared to sink your teeth into this delicacy, you might have paused a moment in satisfaction, to lazily consider this rare fragment of bliss.

Let us not forget initiation (with all its hazards). I think we were the only freshmen class in a long time that was given an official initiation party. Our freshman year was also something special for most of the girls, for there was the spring festival and probably the first occasion for formals.

Senior Class History

Our sophomore year was spent learning to live like the big boys and girls—and we did.

As a junior class member, everyone's attentions were centered on chemistry, the play, and the big banquet. The whole class was frantically trying to bring out its Barrymore. When the play finally did come out, it was sensational, and rumors had it that the entire cast had one foot in stardom. This year Mama began to realize that the face she used to wash the tears from, was rapidly growing up.

We are now brought to the senior year, the year that counted the most; and as we planned for our senior trip, the essence of sweet adventure surged in every loyal senior's veins. Oh, it was fun planning all those dreams and far-away places, but it all passed so quickly; the senior play, the banquet given in our honor, the football and basketball games, and now we are brought to graduation. The memory of faces will fade like the rose in the family Bible to the little crowd of onlookers, but Mama and you will always remember the "49ers".

Senior Queen

With great pride we, the Seniors of '49 present our queen. She has been chosen by the popular vote of the Senior Class for her charm, poise, personality and beauty. Known to every student, Jeannie has proved herself worthy of this honor through all four years of High School.

She was crowned at the Senior Play and reigned at the N. W. O. L. Track Tournament.

Senior Queen: Jean Brown

Queen and Attendants

Each Queen is accorded the honor of four attendants to escort her in her royal activities. This year we have chosen these four girls for the same qualities that characterize our Queen; they are second only to her in popularity and well represent our idea of what every girl should be.

Jeanne Grice, Vonda Lightbody, Jean Brown, Marilyn Carr, Mary Nold.

President Barbara Mullins; Vice-President Charlotte Best;
Treasurer Richard Dietz; Secretary Connie Rundell.

The first few days were devoted to getting adjusted to new schedules and becoming acquainted with new students and new faculty members. As time progressed, many members of the class took an active interest in the various organizations at hand; we also supplied the football and basketball teams with several outstanding players.

Juniors

There were seventy-nine of us last fall when we returned to the old routine of classes and the new excitement of being Juniors; as upperclassmen, we felt that at last we had become a fixture in our school.

Our first social attempt this year was the class party, a success, needless to say; and the Junior Play consumed our interests and best efforts for weeks. There were rings and sweaters to exhibit, and, our crowning achievement, the Junior-Senior Banquet. Now as our Junior year draws to a close, we eagerly await our next year as Seniors.

Sophomores

Here come the Sophomores chugging up the incline, puffing around the bend, roaring through the dark tunnel.

We began our journey last year as Freshmen; now we are Sophomores and will continue to travel down the line until our destination has been reached. Obstacles confronting us may slow us up but cannot stop us.

We have made many lasting friends among the passengers and have enjoyed many good times together, not only at parties and hayrides, but also in our every day classes. Reliable officers have been chosen to lead us with the aid of our advisor, Mr. Emans.

Many of us have taken advantage of the opportunities for extracurricular fun by joining such organizations as the Latin League, F. H. A., F. F. A., Orchestra, Y-Teens, and A Cappella Choir. Look for us next year as Juniors on the third lap of our journey.

Freshmen

At what seems a very short time ago, we entered the high school, bubbling with curiosity, and unaware of the demons hiding in dark corners ready to reach out and snatch any one of us. However, within a very short time we dispelled those fears.

With the cooperation of our more learned predecessors we found it much easier to travel new and different ways in an unfamiliar hall of knowledge.

Since we entered the high school we have participated in many extra-curricular activities such as the Latin League, the F. H. A. Also, many of the boys have become acquainted with the basketball court, the cinder path, and the football field. In several of the sports the boys have shown outstanding ability.

A new experience for us was the annual trip to Defiance College to take part in the Scholarship tests.

We sincerely hope to make the best of our educational facilities and to overcome all obstacles.

Elementary School

The Elementary School with a staff of thirteen teachers has the ever continuous task of preparing over five hundred pupils in the fundamentals that are necessary for their progress.

With the complexities of the world steadily on the increase, the problems faced by the Elementary School and its pupils are sure to become correspondingly greater.

I believe that our school will help to prepare your child to meet life problems better if we have a closer relationship between pupils, parents and teachers.

A modern building, planned to keep up an attractive appearance as well as for use, the Elementary school was completed in 1939. Last summer a complete cleaning and redecoration project was enacted, leaving us with a school which we are proud to exhibit.

Sports

Another important phase of our school activity is our sports department. One of the most prolific of divisions, it boasts entertainment, physical fitness, mental alertness, and a healthy sportsmanlike attitude toward life as its benefits. We of M. H. S. are proud of our athletic teams; to us they are always champions, whether league-leaders or not. In previous years, football, basketball and track have been the divisions of this department; this year we add another, baseball, to the list. Here we present them—Varsity players, many of them completing their last year at 'Pelier. The reserve squad, future teams in the making; the freshman and eighth grade teams, all showing great possibilities not only in abilities, but in leadership and sportsmanship.

Coaches Lubowicki and Small

Football

DICK SMALL

Mr. Small, well-known to all the students at M. H. S. as "Duke," is a new-comer to our sports department. Duke is a graduate of Defiance High School and Miami University and served as a Marine during the war. He has an engaging personality and is well-liked by all the students. Although his first season in coaching football was not perfect, it can be considered a successful one.

We hope that Duke will spend many more years at M. H. S. and that they all will be successful.

AL LUBOWICKI

Al completed his second year on the staff at Montpelier High School. Because of his ability to get along with people, he proved to be an invaluable member of the coaching staff as well as one of the most popular instructors in the school. Al's never-failing pep was an inspiration to any team that he coached. We all hope that Al can spend many more years at our school.

The middle of August finally rolled around. Football equipment emerged from the lingering fumes of mothballs, and again a beaten path was worn about the familiar cinder track. Under our new coach, Mr. Small, and Mr. Lubowicki, who returned from last year, we lost no time in getting down to business. After the first week or so of stressing fundamentals, we started running plays. With the introduction of a new coach, a whole new system was introduced, a system altogether different from what he had had in past years. Although practices were hard and games harder, everybody enjoyed playing for "Duke" and "Al."

FRED RUPP, Guard

"Fritz," although waiting till the middle of the season to come out, got in shape quickly. His ability on defense was very much an asset to our team.

BILL MOSHIER, End

"Willie" was the most improved player on the team. His undying spirit and his height was a great asset to the team on offense and defense.

LEWIE MICK, Quarterback

"Charlie," seeing the majority of his action in the latter part of the season, came into the game with a lot of pep which boosted the team's morale. His ability to handle the ball aided Montpelier's "T" formation greatly.

DON STEINKE, Guard

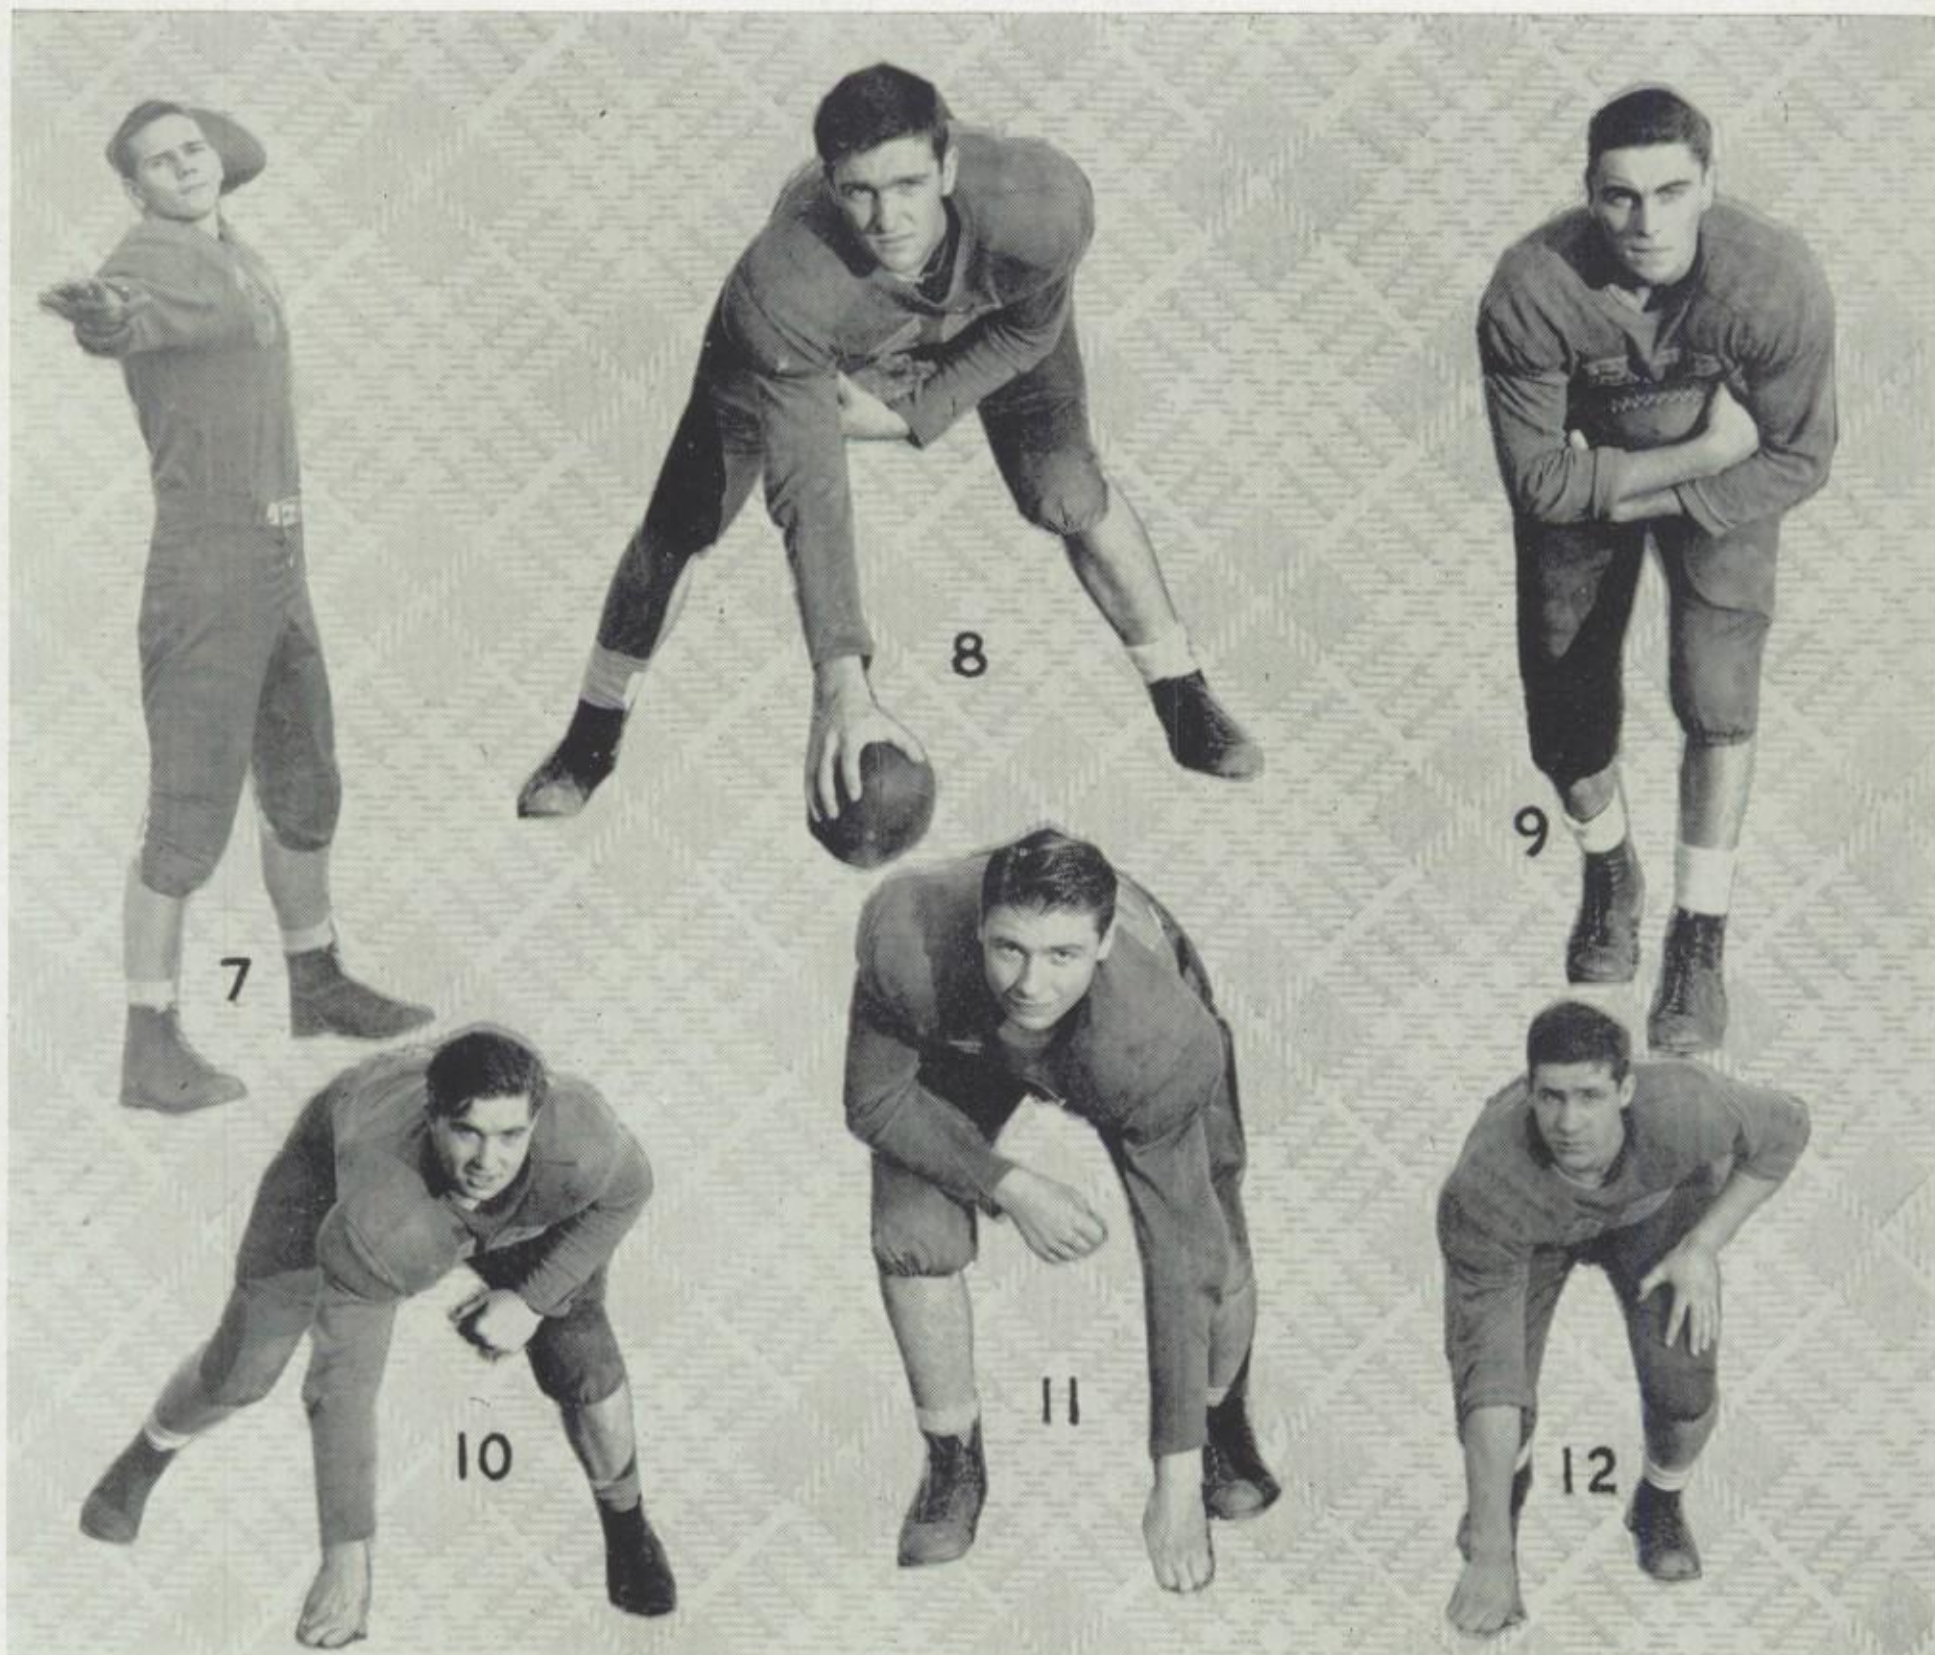

Don's speed and endurance more than made up for his small size. He proved very valuable in running interference, and playing in the opponent's backfield.

DICK TODD, End

Although Dick didn't usually start, he added much pep and spirit to the team when he was in there. He aided mostly with his fine defensive playing.

BOB WINZELER, End

"Slim's" height and pass-catching ability was a big asset to the team. He was also one of the best defensive ends.

7. Hobie Krouse; 8. Ronnie Gray; 9. Larry Loghry; 10. Jerry Mullins; 11. Dick Houser; 12. Lyle Storrer.

HOBERT KROUSE, Quarterback

"Aseff," knowing a lot about it, always played heads-up football. He was a menace to the opponent with his accurate passing, and also proved to be a very fine runner, scoring several times on long runs.

RONNIE GRAY, Center

"Abie" started the game with the determination to win and it lasted all sixty minutes. Although Abie played a fine game on offense, he stood out most as a line backer.

LARRY LOGHRY, Halfback

"Lip" was one of the fastest men on the team and also the peppiest. He was a good man on pass defense, and a hard man to catch once he broke out into the open on offense.

JERRY MULLINS, Tackle

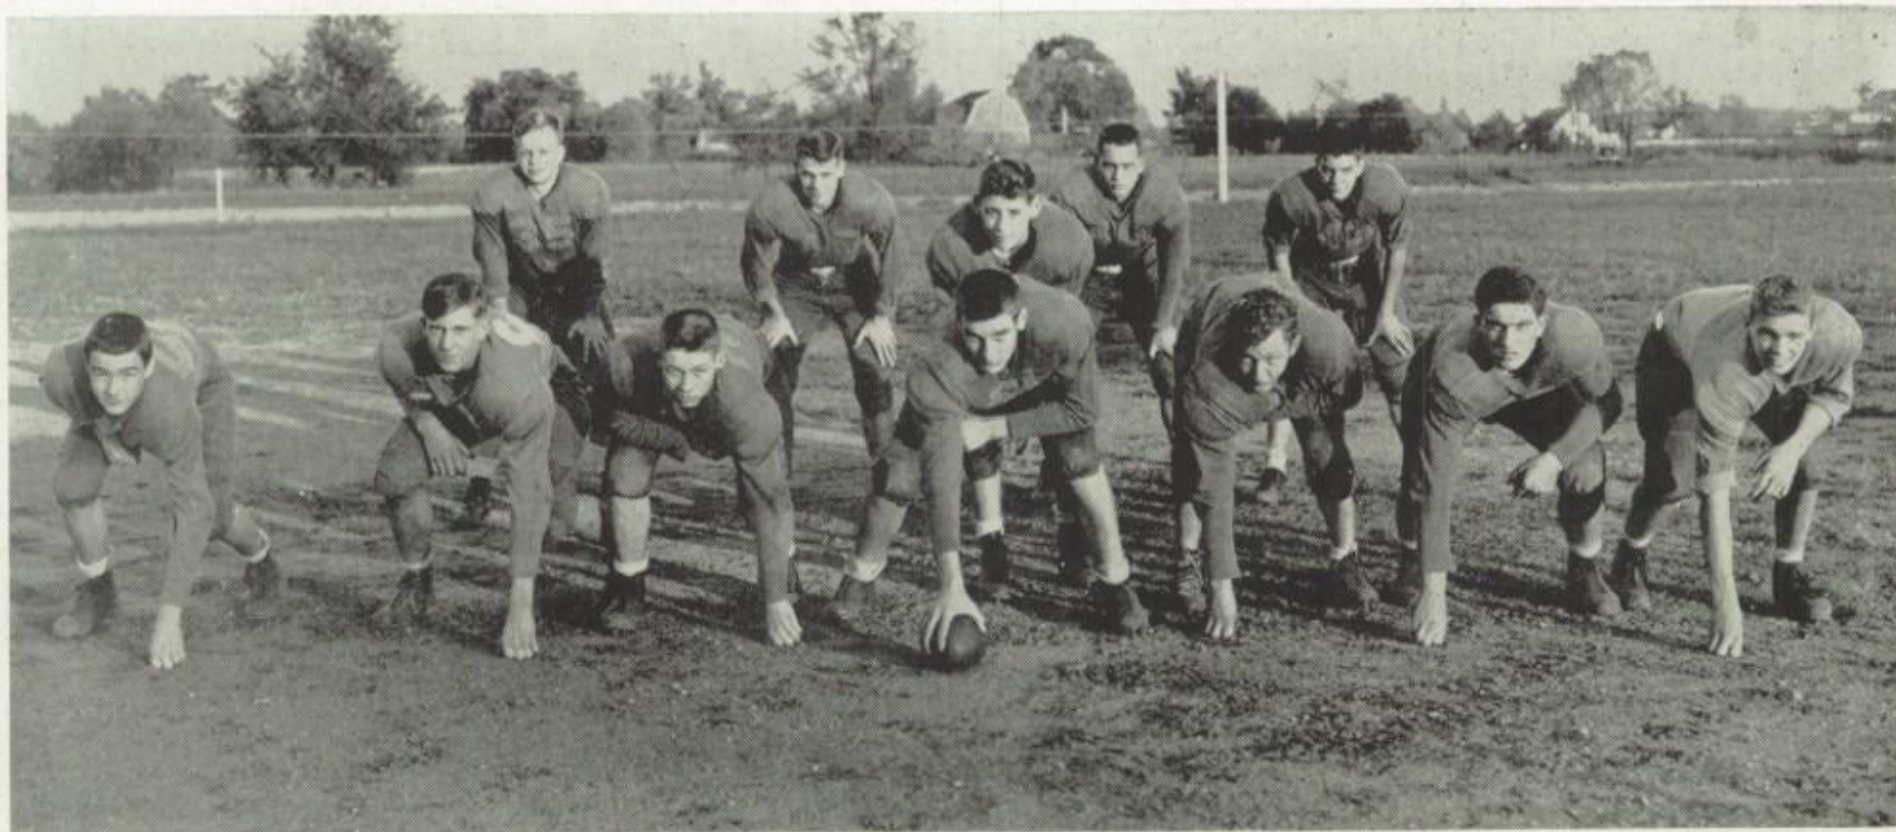

"Tennessee" was a hard charging tackle very seldom missing a block on offense, and always a hard wall on defense for the opponent to go over.

DICK HOUSER, Tackle

Dick was one of the biggest on the team and his spirit both on offense and defense kept the team in there trying.

LYLE STORRER, Halfback

"Schoults" was the Captain and was one of the best backs in the league. His punting and running won many ball games.

LINE: Lockhart, Nicolen, Figgins, Beard, Geren, Robison, Scott. BACKFIELD: Burtnett, Wallace, Brandeberry, Clark, Barnard.

Second Team

Patiently waiting! That was the motto of the second team. Although many of the boys found it difficult to wait patiently, they never complained and most of them saw action sooner or later.

Many of the boys on the second team got into the game quite often, which helped them gain valuable experience. Next year will see these boys on the first team playing a game which their past experiences enabled them to play.

Some of the boys have already learned that hard driving, good sportsmanship, and determination not only in the pinches, but all the time, pays off. With these three important factors in mind, the second team will go far next year.

LEFT PICTURE: LIBBEY GAME: Loghry brings down a Libbey back, while Krouse and Todd lend a hand. Roger Robison and Bill Moshier are also standing by.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Here are the four popular girls in blue who represent our school at all the games. Though these girls are given none of the glory shared by our victorious teams, they continue to back the teams even when the odds are greatest. A basketball or football game is not complete without the peppy varsity four to push the Locomotives on to victory.

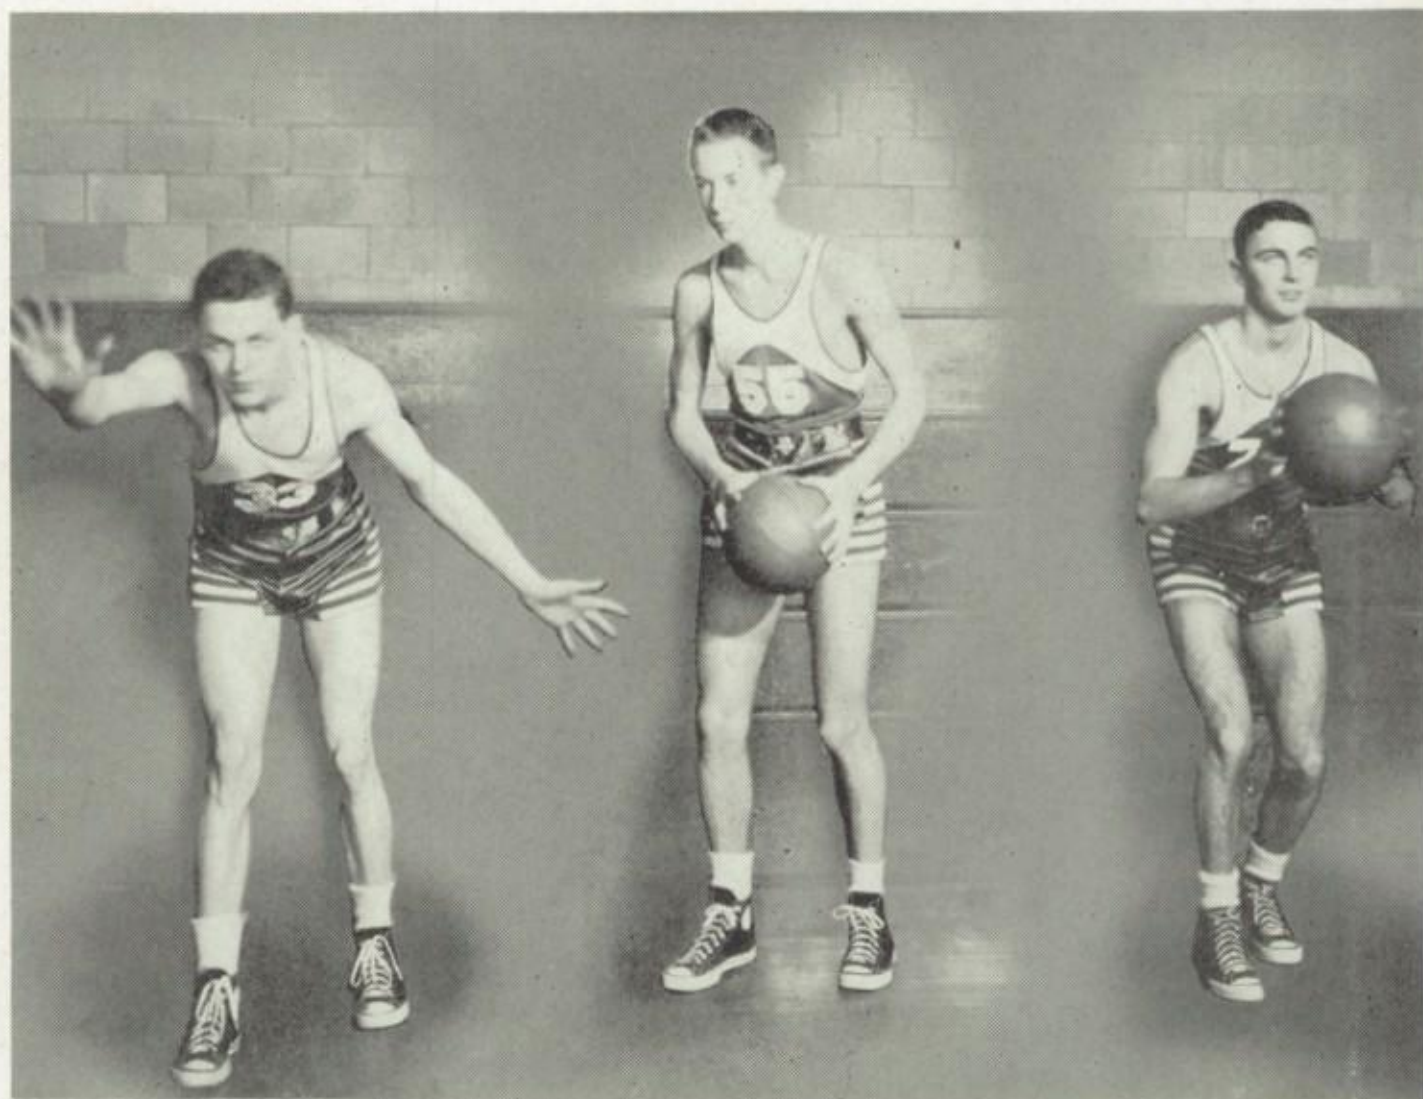

In the midst of the fast tempo of action at M. H. S. can be found these vigorous cheerleaders:

Barbara Scott, Jackie McMillen, Norma Yarger, Beverly Brown.

"Duke" and "Al" running over last Friday's game with the team, at one of those rugged Monday night practices. These practices were tough, but the boys found out that good conditioning paid off on game nights.

Basketball

LEWIE MICK, Guard
Lewie proved to be one of the most valuable men on the team, hitting the hoop many times, and always in there on rebounds.

BOB WINZELER, Guard
Bob's accurate passing, along with his accurate long shots, were vital factors on offensive play. He was always in there scraping for the ball.

LARRY LOGHRY, Forward
Larry was a fast man on the basketball court, and was always dependable for a couple of baskets, and for being a nuisance to the opponent. He was chosen Co-Captain of the team.

MR. EMANS

Mr. Emans, head basketball coach, spent a second eventful year at Montpelier.

His determination and knowledge of offensive and defensive play has shown up in a vastly improved team. Through his congenial and understanding manner he is always able to get the utmost performance from his players.

Russell himself sometimes plays in order to stress the importance of certain plays, or to show a more effective way to guard.

He is not only popular with the members of the squad, but he has the respect of the entire student body.

BILL MOSHIER, Center
Bill was the tallest man on the team and his height enabled him to be the key man for rebounds. Due to eligibility rules, Bill was unable to finish the season and was very much missed.

LEON CASPER, Guard
Although Leon didn't see much action, his endurance and pep boosted the team's morale when he was in there.

HOBERT KROUSE, Forward
Hobie, although small, kept Montpelier in the game many times with his accurate shooting.

RONNIE GRAY, Center
Ronnie came into the game with the determination to win, and his spirit and ability gave 'Pelier the ball when it was badly needed.

LYLE STORRER, Center
As Co-Captain, Lyle proved a valuable leader to the team. His alert floor play and sharp-shooting brought the team out of many tight spots.

FIRST ROW: Moshier, Krouse, Loghry, Storrer, Mick, Scott, Winzeler.

Second Team

The second team played a fairly successful season, winning 10 and losing 7. Many of the boys showed up very well as reserve players, and they will make some fine material for coming varsity teams: since there are quite a few Seniors leaving the varsity this year, there will be much room for advancement. Considering the fine play the reserve has turned in this season they will be more than able to fill in.

FIRST ROW: (left to right): Danny Wenzler, Dick Cheadle, Gene Heist, Don Rouch, Darold Steinke, Otis Mercer.

Managers

This year's managers were Larry Hill, Claude Barnard, and Tom Neilands. Seldom do you find a job which requires so much time and effort but for which so little recognition is given. The managers this year did their work well, despite frequent complaints from the members of the team.

Reserve Cheerleaders

The boosters of the Reserve basketball squad deserve much credit for the spirit and enthusiasm they aroused this season in the Second Team Games and at the Pep Sessions.

Junior High Cheerleaders

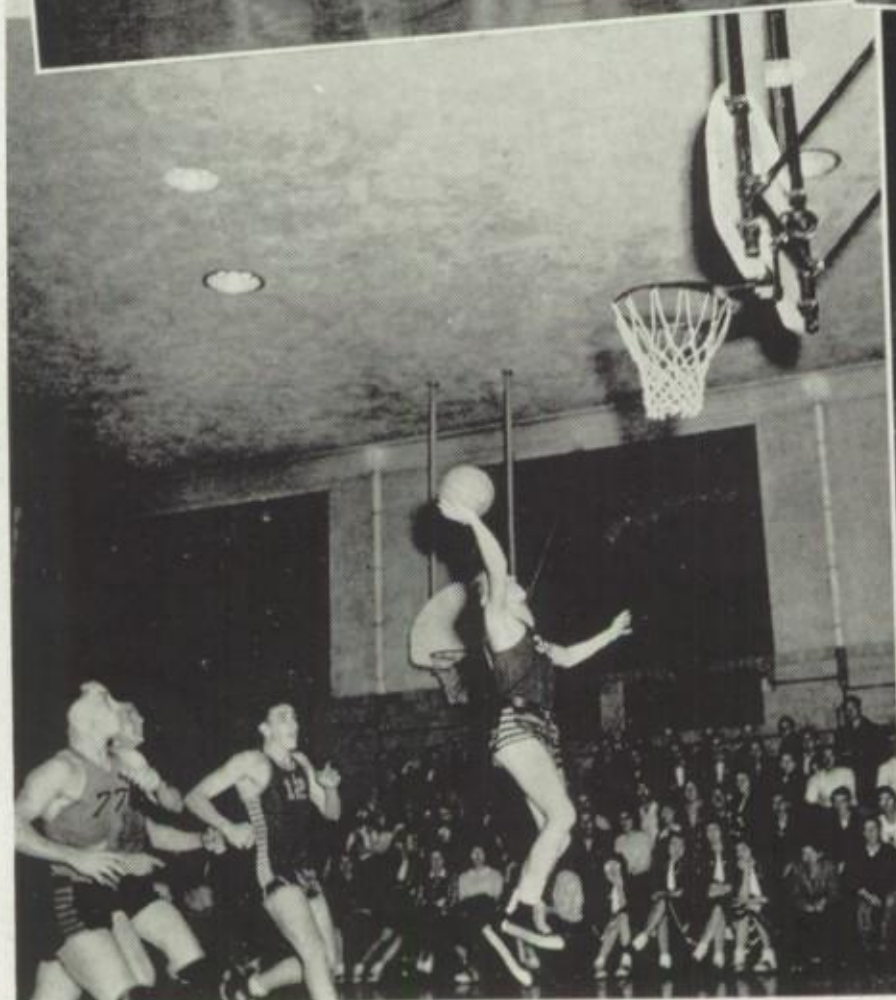

The pep and enthusiasm of this brightly clad foursome bolstering their team in all the games couldn't be beaten. With the cheering ability that they have shown this year, they may all look forward to cheerleading careers during their high school years.

Montpelier vs Bryan

Montpelier's first encounter with Bryan found them in an early season slump, which enabled Montpelier to come up with an easy victory, 37-21. This picture finds Moshier out-jumping Youse, from Bryan.

An action shot from the opening game with Pioneer. In the picture are Mick No. 33, Loghry No. 77, Winzeler No. 55, and Moshier No. 66.

Danny Dayhoff, No. 30, lays one up in the Montpelier-Liberty Center reserve game. Bob Beard, No. 12, follows him in.

The tip-off in the first Montpelier-Bryan game. Storrer No. 22 goes high to take the jump.

Intramurals

Many boys look forward to intramural basketball. It enables all boys who do not make the high school team to play in regular basketball games.

The boys who wish to participate in intramurals are divided into teams, which are chosen by ten varsity players who act as coaches of their team.

STANDINGS

| Team | Won | Lost |
|----------------|-----|------|
| KROUSE | 5 | 2 |
| SCOTT | 4 | 3 |

| HEIST | 4 | 3 |
| DAYHOFF | 3 | 4 |
| CASPER | 3 | 4 |
| CHILDERS | 3 | 4 |
| MOSHIER | 2 | 5 |

A regular schedule is set up for these teams to follow. Every year medals are awarded to the team which wins the most games on this schedule.

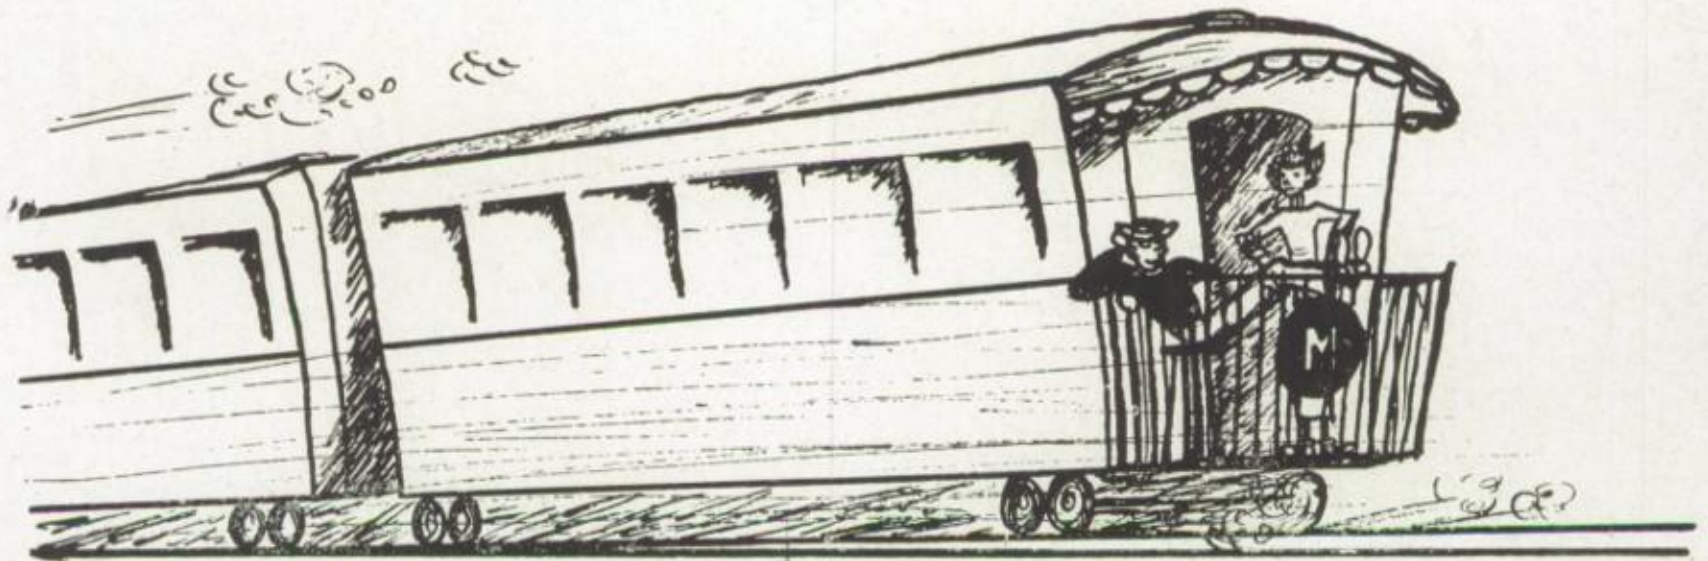

The winning of these games means a great deal to the coaches as well as the team. Many of these games are interesting and hard fought, usually with close scores.

Intramurals help to build a better foundation for sportsmanship. It enables boys to understand what is meant by cooperation, and team work, along with a better knowledge of the game.

Activities

What the club car is to a train, the activities pictured on the following pages are to our school. They reflect the many interests we have had: photography—a recently established club; music—which includes the glee clubs, band, orchestra and a cappella choir; athletics—consisting of football, basketball and track; literature—the literary club; drama—the junior and senior plays; all have their representative organizations in M. H. S. And on the more serious side appears the Student Council and the Scholarship Team. These extra-curricular activities provide not only recreation but also education, and prove that work and play can be combined.

Band

Music is the most intimate and personal of the arts because it deals with the feelings and emotions. In it we have a power and a force for the building of fine ideals and for the awakening of a desire for the good and true which should be more widely recognized and accepted as a potent means for moral and ethical education.

Known in several parts of Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana, our band has helped put our school and community "on the map." It faithfully supports our football teams, win, lose, or draw. Wherever it has gone the band has never failed to place in a contest and has always made a good showing. The bright shiny medals on the uniforms are a proof of excellent rating at the State contest last year. With determination and practice, M. H. S. B. hopes to wear a blue ribbon medal this year.

With the assistance of the Band Parents, the band has $5,000 invested in uniforms and now has complete instrumentation. It has a 60-piece concert and 75-piece marching band.

Only through the remarkable ability of Robert Whitaker, the most efficient band director M. H. S. has ever had, has this band been developed.

Orchestra

PRESENTING—Music by Montpelier High's RYTHMN ACES.

The smooth strains of "Moonlight Serenade" may remind most people of Glenn Miller and his orchestra but to 'Pelier High it means the Rythmn Aces.

This musical group is reorganized every year for the purpose of playing for our school dances as well as out-of-town entertainment. It has provided music for all the after-game dances this year and has done a very efficient job.

Drum Major

A whistle blows, a baton flashes and high-stepping John Johnston leads the band away in perfect coordination.

John, a senior, has been exceedingly successful in his first year as drum major both for the band and for himself. He won first place in twirlers' contest at Paulding and led the marching band to victory at the Paulding Fair.

A Cappella

This sixty-five voice choir, originally organized in 1947 by Robert Whitaker for the purpose of anticipated chapel programs, has now become an important part of our school organizations.

It has appeared at various exchange programs with other schools, Rotary Club entertainment, school programs, and is an inspiring part of Baccalaureate program.

Boys' Glee Club

Strains of sweet harmony stream from the fifty-five-voice male choir, forming a gala spectacle at the Spring Festival. A versatile group, they sometimes expound their talents in three-part harmony and sometimes do it in barber-shop style, with four parts. Their repertoire ranges from sweet renditions of old favorites to slap-stick comedy routines in dialect. The boys thoroughly enjoy the companionship and the chance to display their vocal ability.

Girls' Glee Club

Chorus singing tends to promote fellowship and the doing of the large things which are possible through cooperation and a community of effort. It gives expression to patriotism, to loyalty, and to the intelligence that should animate every school and every class in it.

This 125-voice glee club sings three-part harmony and does very well. The event of the year for these girls was the annual Spring Music Festival held on April 8, followed by a dance in the gym. The girls made a very lovely picture in their gaily colored formals.

Student Council

This organization was introduced to our school nearly twelve years ago. Its purpose is to promote a stronger unity between the students and the faculty.

A group of 18 students, with Mr. Chaney as their advisor, make up this organization, which is considered one of our most important.

It got off to a splendid start this year when the big gavel was given to Helen Rittenhouse and the little one to Don Steinke, the quill to Fran Carr, and the money bag to Jim Burtnett.

The Student Council opened their year's activities by presenting a "Talent Show" in March to establish their funds so that they could buy a movie camera for the school.

Latin League

The Latin I and II students are all qualified for membership in this club.

All of the L. L. events are presented with the object of furthering interest in the study of Latin, both as a language and a source of absorbing legends and customs.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in the United States and Territories. It offers opportunities for the further development of student initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

Montpelier was host to the county F. H. A. meeting held last Fall, and Marilyn Calvin was elected President for 1949-50. With the help of the Rotary Club and other citizens of Montpelier, the girls sent 365 Christmas gifts to children in Finland and Netherlands. The Christmas party was held in the Wagon Wheel and Home Economics room. During National F. H. A. Week, the Junior and Senior girls entertained the Freshmen and Sophomore girls with a luncheon. Fifteen girls were initiated during this week also. F. F. A.

The F. F. A. is a nation-wide organization of farm boys. The Montpelier Chapter includes all boys, with the exception of two, enrolled in vocational agriculture.

Early in the fall, the boys had a hayride; and later in the year, they organized a basketball team to play the faculty and the senior squads.

One of the honors earned by these boys this year was a silver medal presented them for their placing in a contest concerning parliamentary procedure that was held during a district F. F. A. meeting here in December.

OFT, IN THE STILLY NIGHT

(Scotch Air.)

Oft in the stilly night,
Ere Slumber's chain has bound me,
Fond Memory brings the light
Of other days around me;
The smiles, the tears,
Of boyhood's years,
The words of love then spoken;
The eyes that shone,
Now dimmed and gone,
The cheerful hearts now broken!
Thus, in the stilly night,
Ere Slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad Memory brings the light
Of other days around me.

When I remember all
The friends, so linked together,
I've seen around me fall,
Like leaves in wintry weather;
I feel like one,
Who treads alone
Some banquet-hall deserted,
Whose lights are fled,
Whose garlands dead,
And all but he departed!
Thus, in the stilly night,
Ere Slumber's chain has bound me,
Sad Memory brings the light
Of other days around me.

ADVERTISING

The Senior Class of 1949 wishes to give sincere thanks to the business men of Montpelier for their kind support of our 1949 Mirror.

Throughout our many years in school these business men have made valuable contributions of time and material toward our various school functions. These contributions have often meant the difference between success and failure. It is this kind of cooperation and understanding that our Democracy is based on and we are gratified to know that it starts here in our own home town.

We wish to thank you and wish you the best of luck in years to come.
